

UNMANNED AIRSPACE

Weekly news bulletin – 19 November 2017

UAS traffic management system news

FAA may sign agreements with more UTM providers for LAANC trial

Precision Hawk and DJI want local authority partners for drone integration programme

Maltese consortium develops drone sense and avoid system

FAA study shows cities and counties want to set and enforce their own drone rules

ICAO to develop prototype global drone registration system by mid December

New smartphone app immediately quantifies risk of drone flights

One UTM challenge – drone operators measure height differently

China's car-lifting transport drone takes to the skies

AirMap flight data integrated in autonomous Kesyrey drone operations

Drone hits Aerolineas Argentinas Boeing 737 – no casualties

UTM industry leader interview

Some ANSPs “are missing out on the opportunities presented by UTM” – Richard Parker of Altitude Angel

Counter-UAS systems and policies

DroneShield to supply Paraguay with drone jammer

Florida airport installs dual-use bird and drone detecting radar

If you wish to add email recipients to this list or unsubscribe please send message to newsletter@unmannedairspace.info

For all editorial matters please contact the editor, Philip Butterworth-Hayes on philip@unmannedairspace.info.

For advertising and sponsorship please contact Kay Rolland at Kay.rolland@gmail.com